SARTS AN EARLY RIOT IN MINERS' HOSPITAL

EPILEPTIC PATIENT REQUIRES STRENGTH OF A DOZEN MEN BEFORE HE IS SUBDUED

Pete Semitch, a patient at the Mine Operators' hospital, had to be removed early this morning to the county jail, after becoming violent. Semitch had an epileptic fit Sunday afternoon on the street, resulting in a fall which cut a gash in his head. He was taken to the hospital for treatment and was to be released in a couple of days. Just before day break he became crazed and attacked all within reach. The nurses fled for safety, while friends attempted to calm him until the officers removed him to the county jail. Semitch refused to talk in his native tongue and his English is too poor to be intelligible. Semitch will be tried to determine if he is sane.

CATCH FISH BY HAND IN SUSITNA RIVER

BILLIONS OF HOOLIGAN HUG THE BANK FOR BENEFIT OF FISHERMEN

(By Associated Press.)
ANCHORAGE, Alaska, July 11.—To be called a "hooligan" is enough to cause even the smallest of self respecting fish to do odd things. Therefore it is not to be wondered at that the fish in the Susitna river have formed the peculiar habit of hugging the bank on either side of the stream, avoiding the middle and permitting themselves to be easily caught with the hand.

According to C. S. Sapp, index clerk of the senate of the Washington state legislature, who is touring Alaska, the peculiar traits of the "hooligans" have never been observed in any other fish, large or small. Mr. Sapp says they are a small fish, 5 to 6 inches long, and very active. "I have heard a good many fish stories during my life," says Mr. Sapp, "but I must frankly admit that I saw more fish up here in the Susitna river than I hope ever to see again. There were billions of them. They are called 'hooligans' and have a peculiar trait of their own. They choose either side of the river, keeping close to the bank, bunch up very close in large numbers, so that it is easy to catch from six to eight of them in a hand at one grab." The fish begin their up river journey from the sea early in June, says Mr. Sapp, who regards their migration one of the oddest he has ever witnessed.

COWS DRANK BEER.

It Was Poured Into a Stream From a Brewery That Was Bankrupt.
Pottsville, Pa.—A suit for several thousand dollars' damage against Sheriff P. J. Murphy, who emptied more than a thousand barrels of beer belonging to the Schuykill Helm Brewery company into a stream, is pending here. The brewery management is bankrupt, and the sheriff, who was in charge, was informed that the beer was spoiled. The trustees of the brewery declare that the beer was sold and that the sheriff should have collected the money before it spoiled. Cows that drank out of the stream that was temporarily flushed with the beer acted unaccountably frisky and mystified their owners until the facts became known.

WOMAN MAYOR GIVES UP.

Mrs. Aldrich Declines Office She Won in California.
Los Angeles.—Mrs. Ellen French Aldrich, the first woman in California to be elected "mayor" of a city, announced on the eve of taking office in Sawtelle that she would not accept the post. "I want a lowly position," Mrs. Aldrich said. "I want to mingle with the people and to get first hand from them their ideas of how the city of Sawtelle should be managed and what they want. The position of 'mayor' is too high and too dignified to allow any one to do this. I prefer to serve Sawtelle as a simple trustee."

PLAIN DRUNK TRIES TO ESCAPE FROM JAIL WITH UNLOOKED FOR RESULTS

A man giving the name of Johnson nearly committed suicide at the city jail last night at 10:45 without any intention on his part of doing so. He was arrested and placed in the lockup by Chief of Police Evans and Officer Dazell after a hard fight, for disturbing the peace. In some manner the man got possession of a box and attempted to crawl out of his prison cell via the barred window route. His success was only momentary, for when his head reached the flaking air the beautifully rounded neck of the individual slipped several inches, thus fastening a tight grasp on its victim. The man became terrified and shouted for help. In a few moments the prisoner was rescued from his unfortunate predicament and told to behave himself. After promising to amend his ways he was released and sent to work.

NEVADA MAN HURT BY AUTO ACCIDENT

ON WAY FROM SACRAMENTO TO MONO LAKE WHEN CAR PLUNGES OVER GRADE

Frank Eldred, an old time Nevada resident, who has been engaged in running an auto stage line from Sacramento, via Placerville and Woodfords, to Mono Lake, was fatally injured and Paul Johnson, pipefitter of Sacramento, painfully injured when a light touring car in which they were riding with three companions plunged over the grade a mile above Pacific, this side of Placerville, on the State road.

Eldred's chest was crushed and three ribs were broken. Johnson sustained a badly bruised hip. Both men were taken to a Placerville sanitarium, where Dr. W. A. Reckers announced that there was no hope for Eldred's recovery. The machine was on its way from Sacramento to Mono Lake, Eldred being the driver. The other occupants were all passengers and were not hurt.

APPEAL FOR IRELAND

To the Bonanza:
A nation wide movement has been inaugurated to relieve the appalling misery and distress that exists in Ireland. Not a single county or district has escaped the unfortunate rebellion for freedom which has left many families without a bread winner. Contributions throughout the United States have been generous and quick. The appeal has reached people of all races and creeds. Bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh, men, women and children are hungry today in Ireland. Surely we cannot look with indifference upon their want and suffering. Let us help our brethren in desolated homes to keep high their heads and steel their hearts and souls with our much needed help while they wait for Ireland's redemption. Ireland's love for America has no bounds. Let us show in a liberal way that we are proud of the struggle that they are making for their freedom. "Breathes there a man with soul so dead, Who never to himself hath said: 'This is my own—my native land'—Whose heart has ne'er within him burned As home his footsteps he has turned From wandering on a foreign strand?"

SMELTERS ANNOUNCE SETTLEMENT BASIS

NEW RULE ADOPTED OWING TO LARGE PRODUCTION OF COPPER

Frank M. Manson, general manager for the Western Ore Purchasing company, returned Monday from a business trip to Utah. Mr. Manson brought with him a new settlement basis on copper ore which had been put into effect in all the western states, and which the smelters, he says, were forced to adopt for protection. "The smelters are simply swamped with ore and the Utah plants have been forced to limit the big shippers to the maximum tonnage which their contracts call for," he said. "At the present rate of production of copper a sudden break in the price of the metal would cause a heavy loss. The new schedule provides for the payment of but 75 per cent of the price per pound above 17 cents. The California smelters and some of the Arizona companies have adopted this basis, placing the increase above 14 cents instead of 17 cents."

"Everybody is at sea on the silver market. Much depends upon the outcome of the Mexican situation. If we have war with Mexico it will cut off a large production and the price undoubtedly will advance." — Reno Gazette.

THREE DIE RACING WITH A FAST TRAIN

SUNDAY JOY RIDERS COLLIDE AT CROSSING AND ARE HURLED TO THEIR DEATHS

The lives of four San Franciscans—two women and two men—was the grim toll exacted at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon when the north bound Southern Pacific San Luis Obispo passenger crashed into an automobile at the San Bruno road crossing, south of San Francisco. The victims were members of an automobile party returning from San Mateo.

The dead are: Arthur W. Stern, proprietor of the Stern folding box factory; Berthold C. Fricke, manager of an employment agency; Mrs. Gertrude Fricke, and Miss Jessie Crank. Mrs. Fricke, her husband and Miss Crank were instantly crushed to death. Stern, with a crushed head and internal injuries, died an hour later. As nearly as can be learned Stern's automobile, bound in the same direction and racing with the train, was struck broadside and carried a distance of 300 yards.

An eastern woman was fined $10 for running her automobile into a railroad train. At that she got off cheaply.—Detroit Free Press. In spite of the fact that he is quite near sighted old friend Gen. Carranza can see distinctly his own finish.—New Orleans States.

NEVADA MEN OPEN TUNGSTEN PROPERTY

A tungsten mill of 50 tons daily capacity is to be erected and running in 30 days from now in the Greenwood mining district of Arizona by a company now in process of being organized, which has been christened the Tungsten Consolidated Mining company.

The projectors of the enterprise are active miners, not promoters. They are Jim Shea, Fritz Putman, Ambrose M. Murphy, F. P. Fletcher and W. A. O'Donnell, all having played the mining game for years in Nevada from the active miner's standpoint.

Putman and Shea were famous leasers at Manhattan, having taken out many thousands of dollars from the Union Mine, Stray Dog, White Caps and Consolidated at that camp, and are noted throughout the state as ore finders.

They also started at the big boom at Willard, Nev., where they took out high grade that ran $10,000 a ton. Since locating at Big Sandy they have struck it rich in tungsten and have shipped ore valued into the thousands. They have high grade tungsten ore that pay to ship, and but they have been doing regularly, but they realize that the real worth of their mines is in the lower grade ores. The shipping ore averages 60 per cent tungsten, but they feel that if they can get a general average of 5 to 7 per cent out of their ledge they will have enough money to keep them going for many years.

To do this they must have a mill, and they have determined upon a course that will land a plant there and have it going in 30 days. The mill will cost a total of some $10,000. It will include a rock crusher and two heavy rollers. Between the rollers the material will be crushed down to one-eighth or one-sixteenth mesh and fall into a jig that is filled with water and have an overflow for the debris, passing over plates. The bulk of the tungsten concentrates settle in the jig and is drawn off from beneath, but any that flows out is caught on the plates. Thus the ore is concentrated down about 1 to 10 or 20 and the values shipped.

Young Woman's Contributions to Paper Result in Secret Wedding.
Nuttley, N. J.—Announcement was made recently of the marriage of Miss Eleanor Bartlett Dale, daughter of Henry B. Dale, who was once a member of the firm of H. B. Claffin & Co. and Charles E. McCarthy of Newark. Mr. McCarthy, who is on the editorial staff of the Newark Evening News, was introduced to Miss Dale, who was interested in social work, when she began contributing to the paper last November.

Miss Dale, who lived at 14 Elm place, was married to Mr. McCarthy in the rectory of St. Bridget's Catholic church, Newark, by the Rev. Samuel B. Hodges on March 23. News of the ceremony came as a surprise to Miss Dale's friends, who had understood that she was engaged to a young man from Nuttley.

MAY ATTACK PRIMARY LAW BY INJUNCTION

CARSON CITY LOOKING FOR FILING OF SUIT TO RESTORE OLD ELECTION LAWS

Pretty well authenticated rumors were circulated about the streets today that on tomorrow or Wednesday at the latest an injunction suit would be started in the Supreme court to restrain county clerks from proceedings under the present election laws, says the Carson Appeal. In other words, it is an attack on the election laws as they now stand and an attempt to reinstate the primary laws existing in the campaign of two and four years ago. Who will conduct the suit or what special county clerk will be selected as the defendant are facts not yet developed, but it is stated that quite an array of legal talent stands behind the movement.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

There will be a real treat accorded all who enjoy a good comedy at the Butler this evening. It is Charlotte Greenwood, who created such a sensation in "So Long Letty" this past season, in an Oliver Morosco production entitled "Jane," said to be one of the best comedies that has ever been produced on a screen. What the Los Angeles Examiner had to say about the picture: "Long, lean, lovable Charlotte Greenwood and her partner, Sydney Grant, of 'So Long Letty' fame, make their appearance in pictures in Tally's Broadway theater, in a five-act Morosco production of 'Jane.' No better picture has been seen here in months."

The preliminary reel is Burton Holmes travel picture, "Among the Head Hunters," showing the custom practiced by the natives on the island of Luzon a short time back, to collect heads of their enemies. Tomorrow, Napoleon and Sally, the educated chimps, in one of the best animal comedies ever shown anywhere, and "The Supreme Sacrifice," featuring Robert Warwick.

TONOPAH HAS A DAVY CROCKETT

You have all heard the story of Davy Crockett, the famous shot, and the squirrel. It is said that whenever Davy went into the forest with his rifle the squirrels would say: "Don't shoot, Davy. I will come right down out of this tree."

When it comes to shooting a rifle this guy Crockett had nothing on one A. H. Jones, mill superintendent of the Belmont. Mr. Jones dropped in the SHOOTING GALLERY and shot a score of 29 out of a possible 30 points. Some shooting.

Oh! You Tonopah riflemen. Come in and see this score. It is good to look at.
